

PRAYER TO
OUR LADY OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE

O Mary, Mother of Divine Providence, you sit as Queen at the right hand of your Son.

You aid the Church in her needs and with maternal care provide for the personal needs of us, her children,
who were entrusted to you
at the foot of the Cross
by Jesus, our Lord.

I implore you to remove from us whatever is harmful, evil or destructive,
and bestow on us only that which is helpful, holy and loving.

I ask you this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

OUR LADY OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE

**Through her motherly prayers, Mary can influence the design of Divine Providence in our regard.*

Her intercession with God is more powerful than that of the Saints.

When Jesus entrusted you to the care of His Mother,

He gave her to you to be your very own.

She proves her motherly love for you by providing for your spiritual and temporal needs.

Appeal to your Mother of Divine Providence, for she both understands your needs and is most willing to help you.

O Lord God, be kind to us who approach

Your Throne of Grace with confidence, that by the intercession of

the most loving Mother of Divine Providence,

we may obtain mercy and find help when we need it,

through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The name and honor of Our Lady of the Divine Providence originated in Italy in the thirteenth century. It was a very popular devotion which later passed to Spain, where a shrine was built in Tarragona, Catalonia.

When Gil Esteve Tomas, a Catalan was named bishop of Puerto Rico, brought with him this devotion which he had become acquainted with during his seminary years. The bishop had to place his diocese in the hands of Divine Providence, for he found the cathedral nearly in ruins and the finances of the diocese in similar condition.

The bishop's trust and work bore fruit quickly; in less than five years the cathedral church had been restored, and immediately devotion of the Virgin of Providence was established there.

The original image, venerated by the Servants of Mary, and other Italian religious orders and saints, was a beautiful oil painting in which the Virgin is shown with the Divine Child sleeping peacefully in her arms.

The title "Of Divine Providence" has been attributed to St. Philip Benicio, fifth superior of the Servants of Mary.

On a day when his friars had nothing to eat, having invoked the help of the Virgin he found, at the door of the convent, two baskets full of food whose origin could not be found.

The image that Don Gil Esteve ordered was carved in Barcelona, Spain, according to the prevailing taste. It is a handsome seated figure, made to be dressed, and it was in the Cathedral 67 years, until 1920 when it was replaced by a magnificent all wood carving, which is the image of Our Lady of Divine Providence most familiar and best known to the Puerto Rican communities.

It depicts, Mary leaning over the Child, who in an attitude of complete trust sleeps peacefully on her lap. The Virgin's hands are folded in prayer while she gently supports her Son's left hand. The whole carving suggests tenderness, abandonment, devotion and peace.

Pope Paul VI, by a decree signed on November 19, 1969, declared Our Lady Mother of Divine Providence principal patroness of the island of Puerto Rico. In this document it was also decreed that the Virgin's solemnity be transferred from January 2 to November 19, the day that the island was discovered. The intention was to join together the two great loves of the Puerto Ricans: love of their gorgeous island and love for the Mother of God.

The oldest carving, which dates from 1853, was the one chosen to be solemnly crowned during the meeting of the Latin American Bishops Council, that took place in San Juan de Puerto Rico on November 5, 1976. On the eve of this event, the image was vilely burnt in the Parish of Little St. Therese in Santurce.

And in this condition, the image was crowned amid the emotion and tears of thousands of her children and in the presence of cardinals, archbishops and bishops from all Latin America.

The burnt statue was sent to Spain to be restored and is presently awaiting the construction of the projected grand national sanctuary, where it will be placed.

Our Mother of Divine Providence is the Patroness of Puerto Rico.
