

Consecration to St. Joseph

Part 11

Spouse of the Mother of God, Pray for Us

How hard he [St. Joseph] must have prayed to come to know and ever increase in love toward his immaculate wife. – Blessed Gabriel Allegra

There has never been a man more in love with a woman than St. Joseph was in love with Mary. What dignity and holiness were required of St. Joseph to be the husband of Mary! In a feminine Heart, Mary knew that she was secure in the manhood of St. Joseph. He was her knight and warrior. Every wife desires such a husband – a gentleman, a protector, and a good father.

Women deserve men who are strong and protective, yet gentle, loving, and trustworthy. Every woman wants to find security in the arms of a man who is willing to lay down his life for her. The Church and the world need men like St. Joseph. He is the model husband.

St. Joseph was the spouse of Mary. In the same way, each father sees himself entrusted with the mystery of womanhood through his own wife. Dear fathers, like St. Joseph, respect and love your spouse; and by your love and your wise presence, lead your children to God. – Pope Benedict XVI

Every Catholic heart wants shepherds like St. Joseph as well, priests and bishops – spiritual fathers – who are gentlemen, chivalrous warriors, protectors and defenders. Catholics expect their priests and bishops to be prayerful, trustworthy, gentle, compassionate and virtuous. The bride of Christ, the Church, deserves to have leaders who are willing to fight off the wolves for love of the flock, slay spiritual dragons, and preach the truth with passion, Christian charity and zeal. St. Joseph is the model of all fatherhood. Without looking to the model of St. Joseph, no husband, father, or priest will ever fully understand what it means to be a sacrificial man, a loving husband and father, and, a truly masculine saint.

St. Joseph is the model husband and father. The vocation of all men is to be at the service of those entrusted to their love and care. Many men have forgotten this today, but St. Joseph will help them remember. He will help men be holy and chivalrous again. All men discover in St. Joseph a model of strength, fidelity, heroism and virtue. If men – husbands, fathers, priests and bishops – follow the example of St. Joseph, families will be loving and secure, husbands will be holy, priests will be dragon slayers and bishops will again be shepherds of souls and pillars of truth.

St. Joseph is a model for all men. Real men are true gentlemen, at the service of others. Real men love. Real men protect women and children against any and all threats. Real men are willing to die for their wives and children. Holy priests and bishops are willing to suffer and die for the souls entrusted to their care. Priests and bishops of this caliber are not afraid of ridicule, slander, poverty, or imprisonment. Men like St. Joseph are willing to fight for what they love, what is good, true and beautiful. May the Church and families once again be filled with such men!

To you, O Blessed Joseph, we come in our trials, and having asked the help of your most holy spouse, we confidently ask your patronage, also. – Pope Leo XIII

Blessed be St. Joseph, her most chaste spouse!
